MESSAGE FROM THE SATRAP

The 2025-26 academic year is upon us, and with it, starts the Fraternal year. This brings a new beginning for our SEP Chapters, and for most of our collegiates, Rush and then Pledging activities. Rushing and Pledging are the lifeblood of our Fraternity. In fact, I firmly believe that nothing else we do for Kappa Psi is more important than the processes for introducing Kappa Psi to new students, who may become the new additions to our Brotherhood.

As we enter this essential period in the life of our Fraternity, I urge each of to take personal ownership and responsibility for the decisions and actions of your Chapter. To this end, I'm sharing my own "Top Ten" list of things every Brother and Chapter should prioritize for Rushing and Pledging this year.

1. Rushing is more about showing who you ARE as a Chapter vs what you do on campus. Let rushes see your energy, love for each other and commitment to excellence, and that will be more successful than showing them how many bake sales and road clean-ups you held.
2. Quality always beats quantity. If only a few belong, then only accept that few. Never compromise for numbers...it never works in your favor down the road.
3. Ensure that every single component of your activities has gone through a Risk Management assessment. Make sure that you're not harming your Chapter when you plan, by going through every level of that plan.
4. Involve your GCDs and your Graduate Brothers in every step of planning and execution. Not including Grad Brothers and a good GCD is pretty stupid! It's like going for an ocean dive without scuba gear.
5. Ask questions of potential pledges that give you real insight into who they are. If they won't share answers, they've already shown you that this Fraternity isn't for them, because we promote an atmosphere of family and sharing.
6. Pick pledges who you would want to have been the Brothers that pledged you. If you wouldn't trust them to pledge you, why would you pick them to pledge the future Brothers of your Chapter?
7. Don't sugarcoat (or lie) to rushes. Let them know that the process isn't easy, and it's meant to test them, challenge them and help them to grow.

8. Just because "they're so sweet" doesn't mean that they belong in our ranks. Anyone can fake being nice for a week or two. It's your job to look beneath the superficial and determine the basic character of that rushee.
9. If you make a mistake with #3 and give the bid, correct your mistake by voting that person out. Remember, there is a specific percentage that the Constitution requires for anyone to continue pledging or be initiated. Share your concerns and even own up to your mistake in approving them...and ask your fellow Brothers to reconsider this person.
10. While rushing and pledging is work...it's supposed to also be fun. So have fun!

If you keep these ten points in mind, and do your best to incorporate them as you seek to grow your Chapter, I am confident that you will reap the benefits. I join you in your excitement for the new school year and wish each of you all the academic and Fraternal success you desire.

Faternally,

Brother Marwin "Dragon" Smith, PharmD.

MEET THE 2025 - 2026

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

FEATURING THEIR ADVICE FOR PHARMACY STUDENTS

*SatrapDR MARVIN SMITH

Prioritize your academics but remember that balancing professional activities with school is an essential component of true growth as a pharmacist

*Vice SatrapDR AARON CHUNG

Pharmacy school is like riding a bike. Except the bike is on fire, you're on fire, everything's on fire (It is what it is). But remember. You have others pedaling that bike with you every day. Find people that match your speed, then the ride doesn't seem so bad

Secretary

DR NEALEE WELDON

Buckle up and lock in. It doesn't get easier, you just get stronger.

Treasurer

DR REYNELL DAVID FLORES MORALES

You are always capable of doing more; take every opportunity you stumble upon and enjoy the ride, it will be a short one.

Historian

MISLINE DOMINIQUE

My advice to first-year pharmacy students is to stay organized, manage your time wisely, and actively engage in your learning. Build strong study habits early, seek help early, and take advantage of networking opportunities. Remember, perfection isn't about being flawless, it's about giving your 100% effort. Do it well or not at all.

Chaplain

TAYLOR ALTIDOR

Pharmacy school becomes more challenging with each semester, so it's important to find balance.

Prioritize your studies, but don't forget to take breaks, enjoy the journey, and make time for yourself. Rest and self-care are just as important as hard work—both will help you stay motivated and succeed in the long run.

Parliamentarian

CONNOR HAYES

Don't be afraid to ask for help. Don't be afraid to say "I don't know." Don't worry about one single bad grade or course. Everybody has a weakness. If you go in with the mentality that you have to be perfect in everything, you will burn yourself out very quickly. Not everything will go right all the time, and that's okay.

Newsletter Editor

REECE BADGER

Stay Organized! Stay on top of lectures and studying. Pharmacy school does not have to be your whole life if you manage your time right!

Webmaster

VICTORIA MARSHALL

Pharmacy school is exciting yet overwhelming, but remember, you can handle it. Stay organized, seek support, take care of yourself, and always remember your why!

Immediate Past Satrap

DR JOSUAH TILUS

Write your why down and put that why in a place that you will see every day. There will be moments when you start to despair or get depressed. In those moments, the strength of your why will drive you forward. Develop your soft skills. Pharmacy school becomes easier the more proficient you are in time management, study skills, stress management, communication, public speaking, and typing speed. The hours you invest in developing these skills will pay off exponentially. Get involved in the organizations!

LEADERSHIP RETREAT 2025 RECAP

The Southeast Province gathered in Savannah, GA, on June 7-9th for our hallmark summer event! This year's theme, "Trainee to Trailblazer: Harnessing the Power of Leadership" inspired attendees to grow as leaders and strengthen our brotherhood!

Keynote speaker Brother Dr. Jonathan Hamrick delivered "Creating and Maintaining Greatness in Your Chapters" which set the tone for a weekend of impactful learning and collaboration!

Presentations from Brothers Dr. Amanda Winslow, Dr. Chris Winslow, Dr. Marvin Smith, Dr. Jeanna Kett, Dr. Nikki Chilson, Dr. Sabrina Desmond, Dr. Patrick Berry, and the Collegiate development committee fueled motivation and shared best practices!

Our "Clean Out Your Closet" donation drive supported People Helping People in Savannah, which provided clothing to the city's homeless and underserved communities!

Brothers came together for networking, skill building, and service. This left the brothers feeling inspired, connected and ready to take the path of leadership to the next level! This retreat also reflected our commitment to excellence, service, and the enduring bonds of Kappa Psi!

"Leadership retreat was a great chance to start critically thinking about myself as a leader, it was also a ton of fun to get out on the town in Savannah Georgia. Did I mention it's FREE to register?"

-Connor Booker, Epsilon Mu Regent

This leadership retreat was more than just a weekend, it was a catalyst for growth. Our brothers left with new skills, stronger connections, and a renewed commitment to lead with purpose in their chapters and communities.

"I think we saw a lot of energy and enthusiasm after it was over and I'm excited to see the direction it takes us in."

-Adam DiMercurio, LDC Co-Chair, Zeta Gamma

Workshops and team activities highlighted the importance of communication, adaptability, and creative problem-solving in chapter leadership. From inspiring speakers to late-night conversations, the retreat reminded us that leadership is built on relationships, shared goals, and a commitment to bettering ourselves and our fraternity.

Our brothers words spoke about the energy and enthusiasm sparked by the retreat and captured exactly what made this weekend so memorable. As we look forward, the excitement felt in Savannah serves as both motivation and a reminder: When we come together with purpose, there is absolutely no limits to the impact we can create.

In September, Delta Omega will be participating in the annual Savannah T.E.A.L. Walk, an event dedicated to spreading awareness and honoring the strength of survivors and their families affected by ovarian cancer. As you may know, ovarian cancer lacks an accurate screening test, making our efforts to raise funds and support even more critical.

This year, we will be walking as a team to help raise money for this important cause. We would love to have every brother join us in this initiative. Even if you are unable to attend due to the assembly happening the same weekend, don't worry! A link for a virtual option will be shared soon, allowing you to support from afar.

Let's come together to make a difference, raise awareness, and support those impacted by ovarian cancer. Your participation means a lot to us and to the fight against this disease.

Thank you for considering joining us.
